9% Rate Hike in GC, Smaller Tax Rise in Rest of Quad-Cities

A new combined tax rate for Granite City Township's six taxing agencies has been extended to $8.221 per $100 Assessed valuation — an increase of 9.14 cents over the combined rate of $7.503 last year — County Clerk Eulalia Hotz announced today.

At the same time, Miss Hotz announced new 1971 tax rates for other Quad-City area tax bodies, many of which reflect sharp increases over the 1970 rates and assure substantial boosts in tax bills which area taxpayers will pay this summer.

Combined rates of taxing bodies in each township and municipal area show increases over those of last year, meaning that taxpayers in the city of Madison, in Venice, and in unincorporated township areas also will pay higher tax bills this year.

Bulk of the increase in Township results from the rate of $1.213 for the city of Granite City, up 20.1 cents from last year's $1.012, and a rate of $3.711 for Granite City School District 9, a rise of 24.5 cents over the 1970 rate of $3.466.

County Rate Up

The Madison County rate, which is paid by all taxpayers throughout the county, is 48.8 cents per $100 assessed valuation, up 8.8 cents over the 35-cent rate last year. Other rates for Granite City Township include the township rate of 18.2 cents, down 4 of one cent from 18.6 cents last year, and the rate of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, set at 45.4 cents, down from last year's 45.3 cents.

On the basis of Granite City's 1971 property assessments of $176,862,714, which were increased $7,255,762 over the 1970 assessments, Granite City taxpayers will be billed for a total of $11,010,063 in taxes payable this summer.

This projected tax bill is $1,251,500 greater than the total billing to Granite City taxpayers last year.

A breakdown of the distribution of each tax dollar under the new Granite City rate shows that the city will receive 19.49 cents of the dollar; the county, 7.66 cents; the township, 2.93 cents; the park district, 3.87 cents; the school district, 59.65 cents; and the levee district, 7.01 cents.

In Venice township, the major rate increase was incurred by Madison School District 12 which is set at $2.835, compared with last year's rate of $2.665.

Combined Madison Rate

The six tax agencies in the city of Madison have a new combined tax rate of $5.519, up 23.4 cents over last year's $5.285 rate. These include the city of Madison, $1.517, down slightly from $1.523 last year; School District 12, $2.835, up from $2.665; township, 25.1 cents, down from 25.6 cents; township road and bridge, 4.2 cents, up from 3.8 cents; the county, 48.8 cents, up from 35 cents; and the levee district,

News Notes -- Senate Passes Parochial Aid

The Illinois Senate on Tuesday passed by 30-21 programs totaling $50 million in 1972-73 state aid to parochial schools. The bills next go to the House.

The House on Monday approved a bill limiting all elections to one day in May and one day in November.

St. Louis Mayor A. J. Cervantes, after meeting yesterday with the "Missouri-St. Louis" airport board, said it is a "phony gimmick" whose sole purpose is to block a proposed new St. Louis regional airport in Illinois. Missouri lacks the needed funds, site, airline approval and federal approval while Illinois meets all requirements, Cervantes said. No compromise was reached at a meeting Monday between the two airport boards and Governor Ogilvie and Hearnes.

David Molthrop, community education director, National Federation of Independent Business, will speak at 6:30 tonight at the Missouri Athletic Club at a monthly dinner of the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities.

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council yesterday referred to its Regional Forum and to other planning bodies a regional housing plan prepared by the East-West staff.

Federal officials have said the plan is too vague, while Executive Director Eugene Moody says the Council at present lacks authority to dictate specific housing patterns to local-level government.

Noting that East-West must assert land use authority by Dec. 31 or lose federal certification, Moody said, "The next six months will be extremely critical. We are being asked to decide in what direction this Council is going to go."

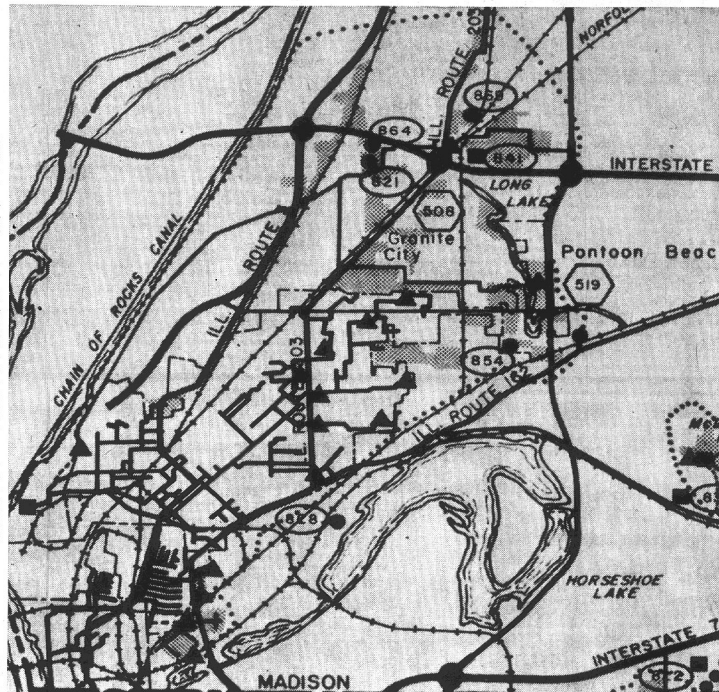

Forty-six new members were obtained in the annual Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce membership drive yesterday. Top team captains were Bill Terrell, Charles Meyer and Chris Paschoff, and the leading Women's Division captains were Mrs. Mary Blankenship, Mrs. Mary Seidekum and Mrs. June Branding.

A regional office of the Illinois Bureau of Investigation will open in Belleville, with five resident agents, to serve Madison, St. Clair, Monroe, Calhoun, Clinton, Washington and Jersey Counties. Other regional offices will be set up at Marion, Rockford, Joliet, Rock Island and the Peoria-Pekin area.

A contract in which Granite City agrees to provide treatment of sewage from Nameeki, Venice and Chouteau Townships was approved by city council members Monday night. Approval of the pact by a 10 to 3 roll call vote climaxed efforts to secure city cooperation in a sanitary sewer development program begun by township officials 14 months ago.

The agreement initially is for a period of 42 years beginning Oct. 1 this year and will continue thereafter for successive periods of ten years each until terms of the contract are terminated or modified by agreement of both the city and the township sewer sponsor.

It provides specifically that Madison County, sponsor of the township sewer development, will build interceptor sewers that will convey sewage from township collector lines to the Granite City treatment plant in the Granite City Army Installation.

The city, in early planning for secondary sewer treatment, sought to build the interceptors, but abandoned its plan along these lines when it became apparent that state and federal agencies which will approve sewer development grants both for Granite City and the townships favored the township program for interceptor sewer construction.

Includes Rate Schedule

Included in the agreement approved by the city is a schedule of "basic" rates which will be used later in determining the monthly or quarterly fee to be paid by township sewerage users.

Edward Juneau of the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab, which has handled engineering and planning for the township sewer program, said a rate for the average sewerage user has been determined until financing plans for construction of collector sewers in the three townships and interceptor lines in Granite City are completed in detail.

The township sewer program calls for construction of collector sanitary sewers in the unincorporated areas of Venice, Nameeki and Chouteau townships, financed with federal and state grants and a bond issue that would be repaid with fees paid by the township sewer users. User fees also will meet the cost of sewage treatment by the Granite City plant.

Madison County, through the County Board, is sponsor of the Quad-City area program which was initiated two years ago under state and federal water anti-pollution control regulations requiring counties to apply for state and federal monies for such projects.

In initiating the Quad-City area project, the county board pointed out that it is a pilot program and that its success will determine the route to be followed in planning similar projects for other parts of the county.

Approval of the city-township agreement Monday night followed adoption of an ordinance authorizing a contract with

Rezoning Approved, Savings And Loan to Be Constructed

An ordinance rezoning seven lots of property in Nameeki Terrace was approved by the Granite City Council Monday night—clearing the way for construction of a $1 million office building by the Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The ordinance, revised from an earlier bill which drew objections from residents on Cottage and Garfield avenues, rezones from residential to commercial status lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 35 in the 3000 block of Nameeki Road and stipulates that lots 6 and 35 may be used only for parking purposes.

The requirement limiting to parking use the two lots at the rear of the tract where the building is to be constructed was set out in the ordinance to meet objections voiced by the residents in the city council May 15 meeting.

An ordinance presented in that meeting which would have rezoned all seven lots without limitations was rejected by a majority of the council after a delegation of residents from the Cottage and Garfield avenues area objected that unqualified zoning of lots 6 and 35 would permit the loan firm to build on those two lots if it desired. They said they did not want structures in the proximity of the residential area.

12 to 1 Vote

A motion to approve the rezoning bill in Monday night's session was approved 12 to 1 in a roll call vote, with Alderman Emerald Dawes casting the only negative vote.

Loan firm officials said after the meeting that detailed planning for the new office structure will get under way immediately. An architect has not yet been retained.

The firm hopes to occupy the building in 1973 so that it may observe its 50th anniversary in its new location. Offices are located in Bellemore Shopping Center.

Memorial Services in Area; Pool Will Open

The Quad-City area will observe Memorial Day Monday in a series of social services sponsored by veteran organizations and women's groups in Granite City and in Madison and Venice.

The memorial programs will climax a three-day holiday — the first of the summer season — that also will attract many thousands of persons to the highways and to parks and recreational areas.

Banks, savings and loan firms, public offices and most retail establishments will be closed Monday. Virtually all business will shut down for the day in observance of Memorial Day which was moved up one day from the traditional May 30 date by the federal edict creating additional Monday holidays throughout the year.

Local and state police plan to step up patrol duty during the weekend to keep traffic violations at minimum on streets and highways usually congested by holiday traffic.

Special memorial services planned in Granite City will be marked by the "Parade of Flags" held each year under sponsorship of the Disabled American Veterans Post 53 and Auxiliary. The parade will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the DAV Hall on 19th Street and proceed to Veterans Memorial Park, Niedringhaus and Madison avenues.

To Raise Flags

The flags will be carried by Girl Scouts. At the park the flags will be raised on staffs marked with the names, ranks and branches of service of deceased veterans. The DAV will furnish the staffs.

Special memorial services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday by the Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307 on the lawn of the post home at Seventh Street and Broadway, Venice.

14 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY

The Granite City Park District will open the Wilson Park swimming pool for the three-day weekend holiday, operating from 1 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Harold Brown, park superintendent, announced today.

Brown said the pool then will be closed for a week to complete improvements in the electrical system, reopening for the summer season on Saturday, June 3. The pool will continue in operation through Aug. 27 from 1 to 9 p.m. each day.

Residents of the district who possess residential identification cards will pay a fee of 35 cents for children and youths through high school age, and 75 cents for adults. The fee for non-residents will be 75 cents for children and $1.25 for adults.

School Board to Rule on Status Of Board Member

A decision is expected by the Granite City Board of Education Monday, June 5, on the question of whether Harold Davis, a rural board member, is eligible to remain on the board. Whether he should be removed because he now is living in Granite City.

The school law demands there be at least two rural members on the seven-member board. A public hearing on the issue was held at 8 p.m. Monday in the board office at which Davis, his attorney Edward G. Maag of Belleville, his wife and three other witnesses testified.

Davis contended that his move from a rural area in Chouteau Township to the urban area of West Granite was a temporary move as he is constructing a home on Shirwin Drive, a rural area, and he will reside there as soon as the home is completed.

Maag said the move was the only step available to Davis under his physical and financial needs. The move is legal because Davis' current ties in the rural area, Maag contended.

Others who spoke at the hearing included Charles Meyer, an agent with the Steele-Kunemann Agency of Granite City who said Davis had rented the West Granite home with an understanding that he would be moving into the Shirwin Drive home as soon as it could be completed. Under the agreement, Davis can leave the home on two weeks notice, Meyer said.

An affidavit was read from Irvin Slate who resides near Davis' new home. Slate said Davis spends a great deal of time at the new house which is being constructed, and retains an interest in the neighborhood, a rural area.

About 20 persons attended the hearing. Carl Macios, board president, said he expected the board to take action on the matter at the next school board meeting, June 5.

The rate for the Venice Park District is unchanged at 23.9 cents. The township, road and bridge and levee district rates are the same as those listed for the city of Madison.

Rate Rise Up
In Pontoon Beach Village, the Long Lake Fire District rate is increased to 19.5 cents, up from 15.8 cents, while the Nameeki Township rate dropped to 26.7 cents from 29.3. The combined rate for the Nameeki township road and bridge fund increased to 32.9 cents from 30.5.

The combined rate to be paid in Pontoon Beach is $5.326, up from $5.001 last year. The increase results primarily from the increase in Granite City School District 9 and the rate increase for Madison County. Pontoon Beach has no village rate.

A combined rate of $5.131 for six tax agencies is an increase of 28.8 cents over the overall rate of $4.843. Chouteau Townships six taxing bodies, which include the Mitchell Fire District, are up to $5.141, a combined rate of $5.141, compared to last year's $5.01.

Miss Polz said the Granite City tax books were to be released to City Treasurer Paul Ruediger today for preparation of tax bills. Bill preparation customarily takes about 30 days.

Bids for Pool Repairs Studied by Park Board

Bids for electrical repairs to the pump house and bath house at the Wilson Park Swimming Pool were opened by the Granite City Park District Board of Park Commissioners during a meeting last night.

The bids brought a response from Commissioner Barry Lomo who said, "Maybe it is time we started thinking of a new pool if this one is going to cost us so much to repair." Previous bids of $5,712 from Rite Electric Co. and $5,554 from R. Dron Electrical Co., Inc., were rejected as being too high for the district to afford and the bids opened last night were the revised bids, eliminating a portion of the

State Probes Illness of Logan School Picknickers

An investigation by the Illinois Department of Public Health into the cause of a mysterious outbreak of headache, nausea, vomiting and diarrhea that affected weekend visitors at Pere Marquette State Park, near Grafton, is continuing today with tests to be made of 20 Logan Grade School pupils and five adults, some of whom experienced the symptoms, B. J. Davis, Granite City superintendent of schools reported this morning.

The administrator said that 16 members of a group of 27 children and adults attending a

Madison to Meet With Levee Board On Sewer Hikes

The Madison City Council, meeting Tuesday night, objected again to a proposed rate increase by the East Side Levee and Sanitary District and is to meet with the board of officials within a week to discuss the increase.

The increase would raise the charge for less than 1,500 cubic feet of water let into sewers per quarter from $3 to $4.55, for up to 2,400 cubic feet of water, the rate would be $7.75 per quarter, and for up to 3,300 cubic feet, a $10.10 fee would be assessed. The cost would increase 24 cents for each additional 100 cubic feet of water let into the sewers.

In a letter from William "Mike" Ebersold, president of the levee board, to the city, it was explained that the increase was needed to pay a portion of proposed improvements to the Landdown Sewage Treatment Plant.

State and federal grants will pay 80% of the improvement costs and the increased rates will pay for the remaining 20%, city officials claim. They also maintain that the rate hikes are in violation of an original agreement with the district.

school patrol picnic Friday at Pere Marquette Park reported cramps, vomiting and nausea several hours later. None required hospital care, it is believed.

Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, state health director, said the symptoms struck members of three separate groups of 20 to 30 children and five adults after visiting the park.

Parents of the affected youngsters well Logan School were notified earlier this week that "samples" will be taken from each child by the state health authorities, Davis said.

A Logan faculty member, three parents and the bus driver who accompanied the school patrol similarly will be tested today, the superintendent said.

In addition to the local picknickers, an undetermined number of fathers and sons from Cub Scout Pack 885 of Florissant, Mo. became ill after a weekend campout and two adults and 10 children in a group of about 30 persons from Trinity Lutheran School in Edwardsville reported similar symptoms.

Most of those who became ill had visited the riding stables area in the park, Dr. Yoder said.

Davis said that Warren Collins, Logan principal, reported the situation to Madison County Superintendent Wilbur R. L. Trimpe after learning several youngsters were ill.

Trimpe, in turn, alerted state health authorities who sent an epidemiological team from the Public Health Department into the park to investigate.

Merle P. E. Springfield regional engineer of the Public Health Department, reported that water samples from the well near the riding stable have been frozen and sent to the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, Ga., for analysis.

Analysis Sought
Samples of a soft drink concentrate were taken from a soda machine located in the riding stable and also sent to Atlanta for study, King said.

The soft drink machine is being voluntarily withheld from service to the public and water wells at both the Boy Scout camp and the riding stable have been shut down by park authorities.

Water samples from both wells have been sent to the Illinois Health Department laboratory in Springfield for an analysis, Yoder said.

Trachsel, who prepped at Grand Ledge High School, wrestled for the Michigan State team in the NCAAA 190-pound division.

In his senior year in high school, he had won the Michigan state heavyweight class A title.

"Tom is a real good wrestler. His record of not losing a dual meet in four years of competition is amazing," Kristoff commented.

Outcourt Marksmen in Cougars' Cage Future

The SIU-SW basketball program, directed for the past two years by Coach Jim Dudley, is still without a really tall player. But the 1972 Cougars will have more than their share of deadeye outcourt shooters.

Bill Hertzfeld, an all-northern Indiana high school center, has signed a letter of intent to enroll here next fall.

The 6-5" Hertzfeld averaged 20 points and 12 rebounds per game for the Highland High Trojans. He holds the school record of 33 rebounds in one game, set during his senior year. From the floor, his shooting percentage was a brilliant .534, but from the charity line it was .612, not quite as impressive.

Hertzfeld, who was a teammate of the Cougars' standout 1971-72 freshman star, Butch Ferree, at Highland High, is also a scholar. He will graduate

Rain Raises Rhubarb AS Cougars Advance in NCAA

Rain dampened the field but steamed the tempers of the baseball Cougars of SIU-SW who were well on their way to their second win in the NCAA Midwest College Division Regional Tournament yesterday at Jackson, Tenn.

Coach Roy Lee's diamond-men held an 11-6 advantage over Nicholls State of Thibodaux, La., an old Cougar nemesis, when precipitation appeared in the Cougar half of the fourth inning.

After waiting 12 minutes, umpires called the game and ruled it be re-played from scratch today. Lee objected, noting a 30-minute waiting rule, but was overruled.

The rain stopped 20 minutes after it started, but the team was already on the bus. Nicholls had defeated SIU-SW twice in the 1970 NCAA regional.

The Cougars won their opener Tuesday in a 5-4 thriller over Tuskegee Institute of Alabama.

DON RAINS

In the double-elimination event, Hurler Don Rains of Granite City overcame a bevy of five errors with tight pitching—albeit runs against him were unearned.

But it was an eighth-inning single by John Belk that gave Lee's men the advantage.

Rains gave up eight hits to the Golden Tigers, who produced a threat in the ninth frame. With one out and two on, catcher Tim Summers picked off a runner for the second out. A single followed, but Rains prevailed by getting the next batter to fly out.

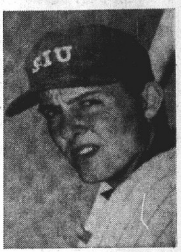

The decision gave Rains a 5-2 mark and advanced the Cougars to 26-12-2.

In the big eighth, Tom Twellman singled (his third hit of the game), stole second and came around on Belk's blast. Tuskegee took a three-run lead in the first, aided by two passed balls.

In the second, Dan Cole and Bill Campbell singled with two out, Ron Rohlfing doubled to score Cole, and a Twellman singled. The other two runs crossed the plate in the third on a bases-loaded error by Tuskegee.

Preceding yesterday's rhubarb, the Cougars rumped with two round trippers by Cole, in the first with two on base and in the fourth with two on; another by Rohlfing with a man on in the first; and another by Belk with one on in the third.

Nicholls advanced by defeating Marietta College of Ohio 8-5 Tuesday. In other games,

JOHN BELK

Marietta downed Union of Jackson 15-6 and Valparaiso trounced Tuskegee 12-3.

Sewer Contract

Madison County for sewage disposal services.

That ordinance was approved unanimously by the 13 council members present at Monday night's meeting. The only absentee was Alderman Paul Schuler.

Presentation of the agreement ordinance hit tougher going. Alderman Walter Nomm, chairman of the Ordinance Committee, presented the contract measure after first asking that several aldermen who were outside the meeting room be called back "because this is a very important matter."

After the agreement was read, Alderman Sam Whitmer, son, chairman of the Pollution Plant Committee, moved for suspension of the rules so that the contract ordinance could be placed on final passage.

Alderman Sam Whitmer objected, saying "there are things in this agreement that are not (on the council) don't know about. There may be questions we'd like to ask."

Whitmer asked that the ordinance be placed on first reading.

"That will give us some time to study it and vote more intelligently," he said.

Robertson noted that "there isn't any time to spare. We've been working on this agreement since the townships first presented their program in March 1971."

Nomm questioned one section of the contract which provides for a reconsideration of rates if Granite City's cost of furnishing treatment varies 5% lower or higher, asking if it meant that the city would have to cut rates.

City Attorney Leon Scroggins said the ordinance was for the city either to lower or raise rates depending upon the variation from basic rates. Nomm said he had no objection to that arrangement.

A question as to whether the county or the city metered the sewage treated or billing purposes was answered by Robert, son, who repeated a clause of the contract which specifies that the city records the volume of sewage treated at the plant, makes its billing to the townships by the 10th of the month, and receives payment from the townships within that particular month.

The contract provides that billing will be based on the volume of sewage treated at the Granite City plant, and not on the basis of water consumption, which is used as a metering system in many sewer rental operations.

On Robertson's motion to suspend the rules for final passage of the contract proposal, three aldermen voted against. They were Whitmer, Thomas Boker and Frank Greenwald.

Favor Contract

Voting in favor were Robertson, Nomm, Steve Basarich, Emerald Dawes, William Dallas, Roy Poulos, Clyde Boyd, Claude Green, Everett Boyd and Gerald Parmley.

Mayor Donald Partridge declared the motion carried.

Robertson then moved for final passage of the bill. It carried by the same 10 to 3 vote.

Juneau said after the meeting that the council's action will clear the way for county-township application for state and federal funds. He said the contract approved Monday night now will be forwarded to the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council and Southern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission for approval.

From these agencies, the contract will be sent to state and Federal Environmental Protection Agency authorities which consider grant applications.

MORE ABOUT Rezoning

died the real estate transactions for the loan association said the building is expected to cost approximately $1 million in addition to the cost of land acquisition.

The council also approved a request to break the curbing on Pontoon Road at Nameoki Road for construction of a 25-foot driveway entrance to the new international House of Parkettes which is to be built at a cost of $75,000.

The request was made by Andy Rapoff who is developer of the project.

A proposal to include in the new city budget an item of $11,000 for 2,498 feet of new sidewalk on the north side of Terminal Avenue from Maryville Road to the west line of the Glenview subdivision, was approved.

Alderman R. E. Robertson proposed that all wards should be provided budget allocations for sidewalk work and suggested that a total of $75,000 to $100,000 should be budgeted for that purpose. Other aldermen protested that the city is facing serious financial problems. No action was taken on Robertson's suggestion.

7 Teachers Honored For Long Service

An appreciation dinner honoring seven teachers who have served in the Granite City School District for 30 years or longer was given Monday night at Charlie's Restaurant, hosted by the Kiwanis Club.

Dr. George Wilkins, former state superintendent of public instruction, was the featured speaker and outlined the progress made in the teaching field since he first entered the profession.

Elementary school teachers earned $125 a month and high school teachers were paid $150 a month during the early years, Dr. Wilkins recalled. Since 1971 Illinois elementary teachers could earn $9,875 and high school educators $10,085, he said.

Retirement benefits were at one time set at $400 a year and have increased substantially through wise deposits, he noted. The teacher retirement fund now is in excess of several millions.

Honored guests at the dinner were Lawrence McCauley and Miss Virginia Segar who are retiring at the end of this school year, and Louis Meek, Miss Loretta Sullivan, Grover Norwood, Miss Marguerite Barker and Miss Pearl Morgan.

Acetens Honored at Suburban Baptist

An Acetens Recognition Service at Suburban Baptist Church this week accorded honors to girls whose individual achievements within the organization and church are deemed exceptional.

During the service, the Rev. Wendell Garrison, pastor, delivered an appropriate message concerning "Ruth," an outstanding girl mentioned in biblical stories.

Acetens, meaning Teens-In-Action, is a mission organization for girls from 12 to 17 years old. A resource book, "Student," is used as a guide to group projects and activities.

After prayers and songs, Mrs.

JoAnn Terrell, Acetens adviser and Miss Gail Purkey, assistant adviser, explained the Acetens program objectives and activities and introduced the members.

Mrs. Margaret Garrison crowned the new Acetens queen, including Misses Becky Coker, Lynne Coker, Tina Collins, Carrie Cook, Ruth Gaggus, Kathy Watts and Pamela Kitchen. Mary Ann Garrison.

Serving as crown-bearer was Miss Purkey presented scepters to the "Queens with Scepters," among whom were Misses Ruth Ann Fisher, Kim Kitchen, Pamela Kitchen, Tami Terrell and Susan Wofford.

Framed "service aide" citations were awarded to Misses Becky Coker and Pamela Kitchen by Mrs. Terrell. The award is reserved for senior girls and denotes many hours of voluntary service to the church and community in mission activity work, the leader explained.

Mrs. Audrey Kitchen, Women's Missionary Union director, gave each girl a charm, representing her individual accomplishments.

Projected plans for the group in May and June include a visit to the Jackson School for the Blind and a trip to the Shrine of the Circus; and preparing the church bulletin board for Student week. Tentatively planned is a day camp for members of the Girl's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Terrell reported that since September the Acetens have assisted in many worthwhile projects.

Their activities focused on such programs as visiting senior citizens at a local nursing home and with youngsters at the Missouri Baptist Children's Home; hosting a party for handicapped children and helping the Women's Missionary Union entertain the handicapped at a Valentine party; holding book studies and a slumber party; collecting gifts for a missionary family; working with members of the Girl's Auxiliary group; and sponsoring the first Acetens Tea and Style Show, an event held at the church in April.

'No Basis For Compromise' On Airport Site—Ogilvie

There is "no basis for compromise" on the proposed Waterloo-Columbia site as the only acceptable location for a major metropolitan area airport, Illinois Governor Richard B. Ogilvie declared Tuesday following a meeting in which Missouri officials urged delay in federal approval of the airport project.

The delay in approval of an Illinois request for acceptance of the proposed airport site on the Illinois side of the river was sought by Missouri officials Monday at a meeting attended by Rear Admiral Russell Waeche, a representative of Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe.

Attending the meeting in the Bel-Air East Motel were Ogilvie, Missouri Governor Warren Hearnes, St. Louis Mayor A. J. Cervantes, Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board; Arvin Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, and other officials of both states.

Ogilvie, in a statement issued in Springfield Tuesday, said:

"In my meeting with Missouri officials in St. Louis yesterday at the request of Secretary of Transportation Volpe, I stated in the strongest possible way my position, shared by Mayor Cervantes, that there is no basis for compromise on the only acceptable site for a great new airport to serve and enhance the growth of the St. Louis region.

Need is Urgent

"The need for such an airport is real and urgent to the economy of the St. Louis area on both sides of the river. All factual studies support this. We have found the best possible site for this airport in terms of available air space, minimum effect on environment, and maximum convenience to the entire St. Louis region.

"We pledge our fullest commitment to this project until the Department of Transportation makes its final decision. This decision cannot be postponed for 10 or 20 years, as was suggested yesterday, without the loss of St. Louis' role as the nation's number two transportation center.

"A great opportunity for St. Louis will have passed. It will be too late to recoup such a loss—and too late for Illinois to extend any meaningful contribution.

"We have allocated $15 million for land acquisition for this airport. We have appropriated more than $3.5 million of operating funds to qualify this project. We have announced a $102 million program of rapid transit access to the airport site. There can be no stronger commitment than this to our partnership in the region.

"It is regrettable that those who have offered no feasible alternative to the present Illinois airport proposal are, in fact, jeopardizing the future of the St. Louis region as an air transportation center."

Bell, 720 E. Chain of Rocks Road, a senior chemistry major at SIU-SW began his college studies 13 years ago at the SIU-Alton Center before the new campus was a reality. The new dental school, opening with its first class in September, is located at the renovated Alton center.

"I was a janitor in the old Science Building," Bell said. "The outside of the building hasn't changed a bit, but it sure is different now inside." After beginning his studies in 1959, Bell pursued them for nearly two years before having to leave school to work. He resumed his education after finishing an Army tour in Vietnam in early 1970. That is when he first considered applying to the developing SIU-SW dental school.

Bell was accepted this month from hundreds of applicants to be in the first class of 24 after the university was notified by the American Dental Association May 12 it had been accepted to open with students in September.

Bell said he decided to study dentistry at SIU-SW "because it's in the area and because I like the way the program sounds." He said the innovative curriculum, which will graduate dentists in three calendar years rather than the traditional four, seems to be a good idea.

"With a three-month summer vacation, you're going to lose a certain amount of your technique and have to start over again in September," Bell said. "But without that long lay-off, there won't be a chance to get rusty."

Bell said he thinks the three-year curriculum is necessary to produce dentists for many communities in the state that badly need dental care.

"Finishing in three years is important to me, too," Bell said, "because I'm already 30 years old and I want to get started with my professional career."

Bell said his acceptance to the School of Dental Medicine "pleases me very much. I've been accepted, now the real work is going to begin."

Other students accepted into the first class who have indicated their intention to begin at SIU-SW in September are Dean Drake, Belleville, and Robert Reed, Witt.

"The selection process was very difficult," said dental school Dean Frank Sokolowski. "With so many qualified students, sometimes we hardly knew where to start."

2 Charged After Fight On Weaver Street

Two men were arrested by Venice police in the 300 block of Weaver Street in Venice at 10:40 a.m. yesterday after police reported they saw the two fighting.

Theodore Russell Turner Jr., 25, of 325d Weaver St., Venice, was charged with battery and Lloyd Hemingway, 40, of 1030 Douglas St., Venice, was charged with battery and Lloyd charged with disorderly conduct. Police said the fight allegedly developed over Hemingway tipping over trash cans along Weaver Street. Both men were released on notices to appear in court.

ELECTRIC BLANKET CARE

Wash your electric blanket before storing it for the summer. All manufacturers agree that washing is the only safe way to keep electric bedding clean.

Electric blankets should be laundered often enough to keep soil from becoming imbedded in the fibers.

When electric blankets first came into use, homemakers found it difficult to accept the idea of washing them. But women gradually lost their timidity about putting something electrical into water.

When you launder an electric blanket, be sure to follow these simple directions:

—First, disconnect the control and shake the blanket to remove dust.

—Then scrub soiled bindings lightly using a soft brush and suds, and pre-treat stains in the same way.

—Next, soak the entire blanket in cool suds for about ten minutes before putting it into clean warm suds.

—Wash and rinse the blanket at the same temperature, using adequate soap or detergent and plenty of water.

—Drape the blanket over two parallel lines to dry.

Manufacturers usually suggest a maximum of three minutes of agitation or tumbling. A short spin cycle will remove most of the water and any remaining moisture can be gently pressed out by hand.

Never put an electric blanket through a wringer.

For hand-washing, use the bathtub which is large enough to hold even a double blanket without crowding. As a substitute for machine action, use a plumber's plunger to "suck" the suds through the fabric. This technique loosens soil and eliminates lifting and squeezing the blanket.

SAVE MONEY ON DRY CLEANING

Here are some ways to cut your dry cleaning expenses:

—Do not dry clean garments that are labeled "washable."

—If buttons should be removed before dry cleaning, take care of the job yourself and save as much as 10 cents a button.

—Provide your own pick-up and delivery service if it means an extra charge.

PROTECT FURS DURING SUMMER

Protect your furs from insect damage during the summer months by placing them in commercial storage. They will receive professional care and be insured against damage.

PRACTICE ON DEMONSTRATOR

Before choosing a sewing machine, sew on a demonstration model long enough to learn what the machine can do. If you are interested in sewing knits, for instance, bring along a fabric sample for a test.

CHAIR FOR SEWING

Consider buying an adjustable posture chair (secretary's chair) instead of the usual sewing machine chair. You will find the posture chair comfortable and movable, and it can double as a desk chair.

Ample Justification for Favorable Action On Bill to Split East Side Levee District

The plan to split the East Side Levee and Sanitary District along the Madison-St. Clair Counties line now appears to have a real prospect of becoming a reality in 1972. There is widespread hope that the levee system will be divided into Quad-City and East St. Louis area districts, although some pitfalls remain.

The simple fact is that the unusual boundaries of the levee district have contributed to voters' inability to obtain economical, efficient administration over a long period—dating back to the first decade of this century.

The two communities are dissimilar and are not directly connected. Issues considered pertinent in one area fail to sway voters in the other section. Without a cohesive response by the public, the governmental decisions more often than not have been in favor of politics and financial waste rather than being directed to rendering helpful service to the public.

This is not to say that there has been a total absence of proper action by the levee district. Board Members Ebersold and Grant for years tried to alter the past trends but usually were outvoted, 3-2, by the St. Clair County levee trustees. Since Mr. Ebersold became president, a considerable degree of progress has been visible.

But it never would be possible to make up for the years in which Quad-City property owners dug deep to pay big levee taxes while seeing the bulk of the improvements and employment go to the East St. Louis area. There is no way to recoup the vast sums wasted through political hiring, buying and contracting policies.

The best that can be hoped for is an end to the unholy marriage and a fresh start, in two separate districts that continue to cooperate regarding facilities and programs affecting both areas.

The pitfalls referred to include the potential attitude of the governor and East St. Louis mayor; the latter leaning toward the Republicans and is counted on by Mr. Ogilvie to be of considerable help in the 1972 election.

Now that Democratic legislators from East St. Louis, including Sen. Hanahan and Rep. Krause, have withdrawn their opposition, chances have been viewed as good for the Senate to adopt the House-approved bill.

It would be unfortunate and unsound if the GOP took a negative stand. Serious though East St. Louis economic problems are, they should be dealt with directly rather than through the back door, at the expense of already harassed Quad-City taxpayers who are fighting to avoid being pulled down into the same kind of financial quagmire which plagues East St. Louis.

East St. Louisans not yet content to let go of Quad-City taxes this week tried to weaken local support for the split by contending that the Quad-Cities would be short-changed in the division of equipment. This seems unlikely but is a risk well worth taking if there can be a halt to the huge drain of funds for little or no benefit.

It is also being contended that "two patronage-ridden, ineffective districts" are no better than one. But each district, serving and responsible to a single, alert community, need not be poorly run, nor, many believe, would be.

Monday may seem like a hectic way to get started on each week's work, but keep in mind that the day comprises one-seventh of one's life.

Legislators Had a Lot of Fun Discussing Equality for Women; Ought to Ratify It

We wonder how many female votes will be chalked up for State Representative Thomas Hanahan, McHenry, Ill., Democrat, the next time he runs for office. It was Hanahan who helped defeat ratification of the federal women's rights amendment and assailed "braless broads...who have nothing to do than bother us legislators."

He was not the only Illinois representative to speak injudiciously about the amendment. Rep. Webster Borchers (R, Decatur), said, "I've seen the Russian Army, where the men and women soldiers share everything. Is that the position you'd want your daughter in?"

Rep. Thaddeus Lechowicz (D, Chicago) foresaw women being drafted into the armed forces. Rep. Henry Hyde (R, Chicago) described the equality amendment as encouraging vice by overturning present laws on pandering. Rep. George Hudson (R, Hinsdale) concluded that "women may think they want the amendment now, but they'll rue the day if the Assembly should pass this legislative Trojan horse, robbing them of all the advantages they've got now."

Rep. Hyde added that "women aren't supposed to work in coal mines in Illinois, but now if the measure passes they will be able to." He called it an "attack on the home—an attack on the family."

We won't label such outspoken legislators as "male chauvinist pigs," but the comments of women representatives did appear to be more to the point. Eugenia Chapman (D, Arlington Heights) pleaded for the bill to be taken seriously, and Mrs. Giddy Dyer (R, Hinsdale) stressed that "equality is not sameness. We ask only that you let us be your full-fledged partners and that we solve our problems together."

Governor Ogilvie summed up the issue by saying that defeat of the amendment "outlawing discrimination on grounds of sex was very regrettable."

Noting that the proposal would call for equal opportunity in employment, work rules, pay and other categories, he pointed out that, despite the rejection by the Illinois House, a bill still alive in the State Senate affords a vehicle for the legislature to redeem itself if it has a change of heart—and if a greater number decide to take a public stand by voting.

Even if it were possible to "back the clock" to past conditions, which appears doubtful in this modern era, second-class citizenship for women is a goal unworthy of the Illinois legislature.

Why do office clocks take 12 hours to go from 3:00 to 5:30?

Settling Elections With Weapons Invites Anarchy

Copley News Service
George C. Wallace, a Democrat running for President of the United States of America, represents a philosophy that stirs indignation in the minds of many Americans.

At the same time, he voices a mood of frustration, one that pulses vigorously through the nation, as the figures of the various primary elections exhibit so plainly.

Mr. Wallace, like all Americans, is entitled to enunciate his beliefs to Americans, to seek their support to run for President if he chooses.

The fact that he was in the act of doing so, and as a result, lies wounded in a Maryland hospital, is a national tragedy of the first order.

For whatever the depths of our beliefs or the extent of our disagreement, we are first and foremost a nation of law and tolerance.

To take matters into our own hands, to settle election arguments with weapons, is to retrogress into anarchy.

That is not to say that we are strangers to the law of the jungle. Political assassinations and attempted assassinations are not new, even in the United States.

Abraham Lincoln was killed in 1865 while in office, as were Presidents Garfield in 1881, McKinley in 1900 and Kennedy in 1963.

Anarchist Joseph Zangara

again that a person who aspires to a place in public life risks not just his fortune, but his reputation and his privacy, but his very life.

All responsible Americans pray for the swift and complete recovery of Mr. Wallace, as well as of those persons who were struck down with him.

The man suspected of shooting him should be brought promptly to trial and, if convicted, should be subject to justice of a sort that discourages repetition.

In the meantime, and of far greater importance, the people of the United States—all of us, including leading political figures—will take solemn stock of where the nation is going, re-examine our attitudes on tolerance and see if it is not indeed time to lower our voices.

This Week in America's History

1772 — Three delegates from Georgia were to sign the Declaration of Independence. They were Button Gwinnett, Lyman Hall and George Walton.

Their signatures, grouped separately at the left of the document, have perhaps greater visibility than any except that of the first signer, John Hancock, and also appear immediately following Hancock's in the printed version.

Gwinnett thus is regarded as the second member of the Continental Congress to sign the Declaration and his autographs, as otherwise available, are so rare as to have attained high value as collector's items.

1822 — In Paris, Victor Hugo, as a young man of 20, published a volume of poems that sold well and also impressed King Louis XVIII, who granted him a pension.

By 1830 he had attained both fame and fortune through his writing and these increases through the years until his death in 1885, at 83.

In Greece, revolutionists seeking freedom from the Ottoman Empire, stormed the Acropolis, in Athens.

Turkish forces also were defeated in the Morea, or Peloponnese.

The Greek forces benefited by advice from veterans of the French army of Napoleon—regarded as the most knowledgeable military strategist in Europe, even after the French defeat at Waterloo in 1815.

1872 — James Gordon Bennett Sr., Scottish-born founder of the New York Herald in 1835, and its editor until his retirement in 1866, died in New York, aged 78.

His son, James Gordon Bennett Jr., editor and publisher since 1866, is to continue to direct the paper until his own death in 1918.

In the 83 years of their joint control, the Herald, despite some faults, pioneered in vigorous and useful news-gathering enterprise, locally, nationally and internationally, to become one of the leading dailies in the world, one of the most prosperous, and probably the best known U. S. newspaper at home and abroad.

Memorial Day--A Holiday Sacred To the Memory of All War Heroes

To the Editor:
Memorial Day is one of the more important dates in American history. General John A. Logan inaugurated the holiday in 1888.

He was a Congressman when he was elected to the House of Representatives and the Senate. As commander-in-chief of the northern veterans' organization, the GAR, he simply signed a decree setting aside the day—a holiday celebrated in the northern United States on May 30 and in the southern states on April 26, May 10 or June 3.

Its purpose was the decoration of graves of Civil War veterans. Formerly, the exercises were conducted in the north by the GAR, but now the graves of soldiers of all the U. S. in commemoration of dead servicemen, is a duty doubly sacred now.

For, Memorial Day belongs to the whole world and should ever be held sacred to the memory of all war heroes. MRS. SYLVIA TURNER, Ten 90, Daughters of Union Veterans dieters' graves decided to organize an order for the purpose of assisting the Grand Army of the Republic in its efforts to prosper and in September 1900, at the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, the National Alliance Daughters of Union Veterans was endorsed.

At the 50th national encampment in 1921, the Grand Army resolved that "no society of women which is not at this time associated or affiliated with the GAR shall be hereafter associated, affiliated or recognized by the Grand Army of the Republic."

Memorial Day, observed as a legal holiday in 1908, is in commemoration of the dead servicemen, is a duty doubly sacred now.

For, Memorial Day belongs to the whole world and should ever be held sacred to the memory of all war heroes. MRS. SYLVIA TURNER, Ten 90, Daughters of Union Veterans

Equality for women VIEWED AS INEVITABLE
To the Editor:
I don't classify myself as a "braless broad" but I feel equal rights for women are long overdue in Illinois.

Everytime I read the Press-Record I become concerned about the future of the Quad-City area. In the May 18 paper, for instance, how many women do you have in the Press-Record files in the past year who have exposed not themselves to anyone on the street?

How many women have walked in a tavern and shot another person?

Name and address must accompany each letter but will not be printed unless it contains at least 250 words. All letters must be typed and must be received by the deadline of 10:00 a.m. on the day of publication. Letters not in good taste will be rejected or edited.

Aside from shoplifting, how many women have been arrested for robbing or burglarizing a place?

How many female "peeping Toms" do you have? I could go on and on.

The point I am trying to make is this: Obtaining equal rights are mandatory for women.

And despite people like State Rep. Thomas J. Hanahan, they are inevitable.

In order to clean up Illinois, men and women must work together.

In general, women are equal as intelligent as men.

We are as equally concerned, as the majority of men, with the welfare of our city, our state and our country.

Men calling us brainless broads may sound funny, but maybe that article on the front page got a few laughs from "male chauvinist pigs."

Incidentally I do not consider myself a women's liberationist! LINDA REYNOLDS, West 22nd Street

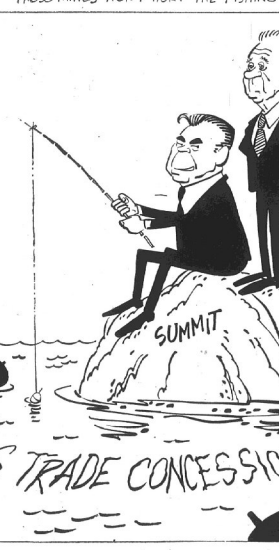

UMPIRES TOO STRICT WITH FANS, PLAYERS?
To the Editor:
After watching a night ball game at Wilson Park on May 18, I witnessed a strange happening.

It was necessary for me to leave to take a youngster to my music lesson, which required about one hour. Upon returning I was informed by a member of the park hierarchy that I could not return to the grandstand where I paid my money because I had an argument with the umpire.

I understand that while I was gone, there was a fight between the umpire and people in the grandstand, in which I was not involved. The umpire member also gave a lecture in public on sportsmanship. It is remarkable the amount of attention I received, especially when I was not present, sportsmanlike? Obviously, an umpire cannot be watching the plays when his attention is focused on the grandstand.

There was a similar letter in this column concerning unfairness by park personnel last year. No wonder only a handful of people attend park functions. I know of no law that says fans cannot boo, or cheer as

13 Taking 28-Week Maintenance Course

A 28-week program in building maintenance has been established at the Manpower Development Training Center operated by SIU-SW in East St. Louis.

The program was established after a survey of the area revealed a need for trained building maintenance personnel, according to Arthur Adams, director of the center. He said students will be trained in commercial and residential building repair.

Thirteen students are enrolled in the program, which involves training in carpentry, electrical work, masonry, painting and plumbing. Earl L. Dan Cy, instructor in the program, said.

Renovation of the center at 3300 Missouri Ave. is a program project. Several of the classrooms, offices and the entrance to the building have been repaired by the maintenance class.

Due to a shortage of funds, Dan Cy said, the class uses available materials, including scraps of metal from the welding and sheet metal shop, and material from the upholstery class. He said an old water cooler is being converted into an air conditioner.

Students enrolled come from Madison and St. Clair Counties. The first class is scheduled for graduation in September.

Legislators—Walker Can Win But Cannot Improve Services, Cut Taxes at Same Time

By KEN WATSON
Capitol News Service

Springfield — Although they are not talking for publication, Democratic legislative leaders are far from happy about their first meeting with governor candidate Daniel Walker.

A general mood of uneasiness apparently discomforted the session.

"That man just looks right through you," one of the high-ranking leaders commented afterwards.

But it was not only the unusual Walker personality that bothered the Democrat legislators. This in itself is not a new phenomena; Walker's co-candidates on the state ticket have not exactly warmed to him.

The legislative leaders, unlike the state candidates, are less worried about the 1972 campaign as they are about what may happen if Walker is elected governor.

There are already Statehouse predictions that if Walker is the next governor, the 1973 legislative session will be even more weird than usual and that the prospects of anything worthwhile being enacted would be about nil.

Capitol Democrats privately are irritated by Walker's public charge that he could cut $500 million from Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie's new budget, and then refusing to explain how when challenged in turn by Ogilvie.

The legislators, who daily engage in floor and committee debates on controversial issues, felt that Walker should have agreed to appear before the House Appropriations Committee and should have been able to make a credible performance.

His failure to do so, they believe, only strengthens the contention—right or wrong—that Ogilvie and other Republicans have made: that Walker is reckless and irresponsible in his campaigning and actually doesn't know what he is talking about regarding specific matters concerning state government.

There is some grumbling, too, beneath the Statehouse dome that Walker is basing his campaign too much on an emotional, appearance, television appeal and is not likely to deal much with the issues.

This, it is conceded, may well assure his election, but might pave the way for a disastrous legislative session next year and, perhaps, a chaotic administration unmatched since Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams held forth in Michigan.

Democratic as well as Republican lawmakers feel that Walker has already talked himself into a future hole as far as legislative matters are concerned by implying that if elected, he will substantially reduce taxes and cut state spending. The cool cats say it, "No way."

Privately, most legislators, Democrats as well as Republicans, praised Lt. Gov. Paul Simon for his frank commentary on the tax-revenue issue, while agreeing that it probably cost him the nomination.

Almost all responsible legislators realize that 1972 is going to see some major overhauls of the Illinois tax-revenue structure involving not only the state, but local governments as well.

Any implied promise of a tax cut is considered by them to be ridiculous. Not only is there no realistic prospect that state spending will be cut, but a general consensus that it will almost certainly have to increase.

There is fear among Democrats that a Governor Walker would find himself hopelessly defeated because of unredemptable political I.O.U.'s piled up by Candidate Walker.

Employment in Steel Industry Rising Sharply

Washington — March saw the largest single one-month jump in domestic steel industry employment since it hit a 32-year low last autumn.

American Iron and Steel Institute reports 468,186 persons were on industry payrolls during the month, up 15,831 persons from February's 452,355 total—and an increase of 38,421 over November, when domestic steel employment fell to its lowest level since 1939.

March's average work week for wage earners also stretched out to 38.3 hours, compared with 37.8 hours for February.

The Institute reports that domestic steelmakers paid out $490,058,000 in wages and salaries in March, compared with $443,867,000 in such payments during February.

Highlights of the Institute's steel industry employment report include:

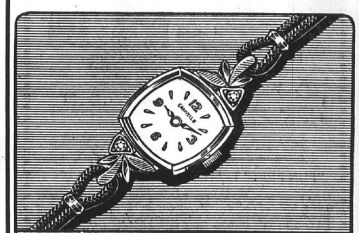

Total employment costs per hour by hourly employees: $6.93 in March 1972, compared with $6.26 average for 1971. Cost of employee benefits included in the total (pensions, insurance, supplemental unemployment benefits, the non-payroll portions of savings and vacation plan costs and legally required payroll taxes) are partly estimated.

Average hours worked per week by wage earners: 38.0 in March 1972, compared with 38.3 hours in February and 35.7 hours in January.

Fast Data Seen as an Added Safeguard for Police Officers Pursuing Suspicious Autos

Copley News Service

Springfield—An Illinois state trooper on patrol sees a speeding vehicle passing illegally. Is the driver just an amiable citizen paying too much attention to the tape cassette and too little to the traffic? Or is it someone with a very real reason for wanting to get away from the vicinity of a police officer?

Previously, the officer never knew when he flagged down the motorist what he might be walking into. Officers have died because what appeared to be a traffic offender was actually a fleeing fugitive who opened fire.

Now, thanks to the modern marvel of the computer-to-computer hookup, the officer will know at least if the car is listed as stolen, even before he stops it.

Within seconds more, he will be able to verify the driver's license, see if the driver has a record of traffic offenses or is wanted by authorities, and can check the ownership of license plates, guns, securities, boats and other articles he might find.

The hookup, instituted between the Illinois department of law enforcement and the office of the secretary of state, now gives policemen immediate access to nearly seven million driver's license records in the secretary of state's office.

When the hookup is completed in the next few weeks, complete information on five million automobile registrations also will be available.

Expressing pleasure at the progress in completing the hookup, Secretary of State John W. Lewis has praised the system as giving the police officer "an added and valuable tool to protect himself as well as to enforce the law more fairly."

In order to comply with federal guidelines on record disclosures, the driver records provided to police agencies will be limited to entries in the immediate preceding 12 months.

The auto and drivers' registrations are connected to the Law Enforcement Agencies Data System (LEADS), according to Herbert D. Brown, Illinois law enforcement director. The LEADS system consists of a computer in Springfield connected to 245 terminals in law enforcement agencies throughout the state, as well as to an FBI computer in the National Crime Information Center in Washington, D. C., and now to a computer in secretary of state's office as well.

Through a LEADS terminal, Brown said, a police officer now has, within seconds, access to more than 120,000 Illinois records on stolen items, records on stolen vehicles, license plates, guns and other items, information on wanted or missing persons; to more than 3.1 million FBI records; and to nearly seven million Illinois drivers' licenses.

"Formerly, these records were available only in cumbersome files," the director said. "The new electronic file provides speedier access and greater accuracy."

Attorney General Race Will Include Debates

By NANCY DAY

Copley News Service

Springfield—Most campaigns at the state and local levels are still rather subdued and candidates making appearances on the luncheon and banquet circuits a couple of times a week at most.

But there are other ways to campaign, which the two candidates for Illinois attorney general have been exploiting to the fullest for months.

This technique is the use of the "pseudo-event," the release or the press conference allegedly pegged on a news event. It is the type of story that might not get played—or might not include the candidate's name—without the staging of a news event.

Until recently, incumbent Atty. Gen. William Scott had generally been playing the game with the well-timed news release.

His challenger, State Sen. Thomas Lyons, has been on both the offensive and defensive with releases usually distributed at a live press conference, thereby getting the broadcast as well as the print exposure.

Scott's no newsmen, though, and knows the Capitol news corps can generally be summoned into a "newsmakers" presence.

So he announced his opinions on the equal rights amendment and judicial vacancies in person before the cameras.

Typical of Lyons' tactics is a press conference called a few weeks ago to outline the major points in his campaign. He had no specifics to back up any of his charges except for one claim that an assistant attorney general acted improperly in a tax case.

A Lyons release (one of several on the subject) said: "I retain an absorbing curiosity as to the part played by Mr. Bickley in the delay of the issuance of assessments against the corporation until it became public knowledge that their affairs were steeped in criminality."

Another release called the episode "the most outrageous case arising out of the Sales Tax Act since its passage nearly 40 years ago."

Scott issued a release from his Chicago office when Lyons first made the charge in March, saying Lyons was "waging an intellectually dishonest campaign typified by deliberate misstatements and outright lies."

The attorney general said Bickley served on a contract basis in pollution cases and, when representing the company in question, was defeated in court by the attorney general's office.

Both Scott and Lyons, being trim, articulate non-balding lawyers, come off well in personal appearances.

Both have agreed to debate, but no dates have been set. Their past performances indicate that the debates have the promise of producing the kind of true adversary confrontation which pins down stands

Heroes Who Died So That Freedom Might Live

Memorial Day is the day set aside to honor American men who have given their lives for their country.

It is a patriotic day; it is a day of reverence; it has special significance again this weekend to the families of all Quad-City war dead, including the 37 sons, husbands, fathers and brothers killed in action in Vietnam or in incidents related to the present war.

The death toll of American servicemen in Vietnam exceeds 52,000. Total U. S. casualties in Southeast Asia have surpassed the 500,000 mark.

Price Seeks to Expedite Social Security Boosts

Retired citizens who are wondering whatever happened to all those social security improvements which the House of Representatives passed almost a year ago have been given new hope for relief by Cong. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis).

"The social security improvements have been hung up over in the Senate, with no action taken, because they were attached to the very complex and still very controversial welfare reform bill," said Price.

"The changes which the Senate Finance Committee recently has made in the House-passed bill make it obvious that it could well be many more months before we can expect any real agreement between the two Houses on the combined measure."

"It is obviously unfair, however, for Congress to ask our retired citizens to wait any longer for the social security improvements which they have been led to expect and which they certainly deserve," said Price.

"The simplest and fastest way to remedy the situation is for us to separate social security from welfare reform and enact the 1971 improvements now, without further delay," the Illinois Democrat said.

"Therefore, I have introduced legislation identical to the social security provisions of H.R. 1 except that instead of the 5% increase, Chairman Mills' proposed 20% increase in basic benefits has been submitted in view of the cost of living increases that have occurred since June, 1971."

"These delays are increasing the hardship on our senior citizens, and we must act quickly to remedy these severe financial conditions," Price said.

Lewis Cottrell, 95, Retired Farmer, Dies

Lewis McNutt Cottrell, 95, of 2618 West 22nd St., a retired farmer formerly of Dover, Tenn., was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital from his home at 3:45 p.m. Monday.

He was born in Roane County, Spencer, W. Va., and lived in Dover prior to moving to this area 14 years ago.

While a resident of Tennessee, Mr. Cottrell was road commissioner for Stewart County from 1928 to 1932 and later was in charge of the Stewart County Home for the Aged from 1932 to 1936.

He was a member of Taylor Chapel Methodist Church and belonged to the Masonic Lodge in Dover.

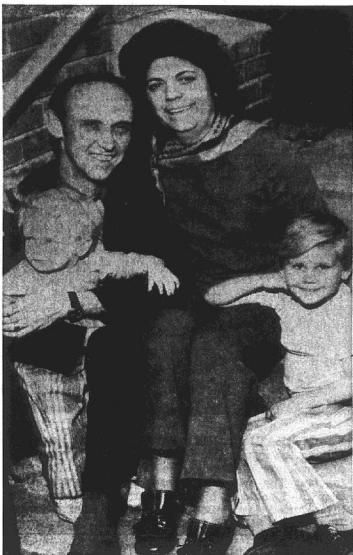

His wife, Mrs. Catherine Cottrell, died in 1938.

Surviving are six sons, Brooks, Rex, Robert and Delmar Cottrell, all of Granite City; Kermet Cottrell of Clarksville, Tenn.; and Wesley Cottrell of Dover; three daughters, Mrs. Gilbert (Flora) Sykes, Mrs. Eva Sykes and Mrs. Joe (Hazel) Rippy, all of Granite City; one brother, Irvin Cottrell of Spencer, W. Va.; 65 grandchildren; 147 great-grandchildren and 22 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today in Dover. Details are in the obituary column.

Intersection Mishap

Kenneth Stallings of Granite City has graduated from a sales training institute conducted by Bankers Life & Casualty Co., Chicago. The program spans an intensive week of instruction and training for new agents, and covers advanced sales and service techniques for insurance representatives. Locally, Stallings works out of 3460 Hampton Ave., St. Louis.

BOOTSTRAPPER AND WIFE GRADUATE.

Technical Sgt. Robert O. Sawyer, with the 3380 Air Base Group at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., and his wife, the former Shirley A. McKuski, received bachelor of science degrees in history, minor in secondary education, during commencement rites held during the weekend at the University of Southern Mississippi. Sawyer attended Southern under the "bootstrap" or degree completion program. His wife is a former servicewoman, the couple having met while she was a Women's Air Force recruiter in Houston, Tex. Michael, two, and Philip, four, saw their parents graduate. Sawyer is the son of Lee O. Sawyer, 2315 Delmar Ave., Granite City.

McKendree to Confer Four Honorary Degrees

McKendree College will grant honorary doctorates to three men and a woman at its commencement Saturday, according to Charles L. Daily, chairman of the board of trustees. The board recently approved the degrees which already had been approved by the faculty and administration. Recipients will be: Dr. George Hand, a trustee since 1959, professor of economics at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern; Dr. Mildred Silver, one of the founders in 1955 of the McKendree Writers Conference and a former Hum-Il professor of English at McKendree College; and the Rev. John Henderson, a member of the board of trustees, superintendent of the East St. Louis district of the Southern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church; and the Rev. James Owens, a member of the board of trustees and Olney district superintendent of the United Methodist Church.

A few bucks down, nothing per month.

You only pay one premium for title insurance. But it protects your title as long as you, or your heirs, own your property. That's what makes title insurance such a great buy.

What do you get for this single payment premium? A complete title search, for one thing. A search that reveals any defects of record affecting your property. But, that's not all.

Title insurance also protects you from all claims against the title, as insured, including those caused by "hidden risks". Like the heir of a former owner that no one knew about. Or the forgery or erroneous earlier deed or document that affects your property. Or the undisclosed divorced wife of a previous owner. This is the kind of protection you simply can't get from abstracts or searches alone. There's a professional title insurance agent right in your area who can tell you all about this one-cost title protection. Give him a call today.

Whereas, it will be to the best interest of all the parties concerned to use the Granite City Sewage Treatment Facilities and with the aid of State and Federal Grants for construction and improvement to facilities, to justly share the cost and expense of sewage treatment and disposal, amount of wastes allowed to be discharged by the proposed interceptor sewer into the Granite City Treatment Plant shall not exceed 182,000 gallons per month.

6. Other Users. Madison County reserves unto itself the sole right and authority to collect appropriate charges from other public authorities owning and operating sewage collection systems within the watershed of Chouteau, Venice and Nameoki Townships which the County may permit to connect to and discharge sewage into said Madison County Interceptor Sewer.

Madison County shall be responsible for sub-metering such sewer lines and shall fix and collect such charges over and above the treatment charge of Granite City as Madison County may determine necessary to amortize the proper share of the construction cost of Madison County's Sewer System. Nameoki, Chouteau and Venice Townships and to defray expenses for repair, replacement and costs of metering and collecting such interceptor services.

7. Duration. This contract shall be in effect for a term of 42 years from and after October 1, 1972, and thereafter shall continue for successive periods of ten (10) years until terminated or modified by agreement of the parties. No termination shall be effective without the consent of Madison County until five (5) years after written notice from Granite City to Madison County of such intended termination.

8. Modification. The rates provided in Paragraph 4 above shall be the base rates of this agreement. The base rates set forth in Paragraph 4 above are predicated on the receipt by Granite City of Federal and State Grants in the amount of 80% of eligible costs of a new secondary sewer treatment facility for Granite City. If such grants as finally approved and paid are less than 80% of eligible costs then the base rates of Paragraph 4 above shall be subject to immediate modification.

Two years after Granite City starts secondary treatment, the rates shall be reviewed for modification to reflect the actual treatment costs experienced by Granite City. In addition to the foregoing modifications any increase or decrease in base rates, or modified base rates, shall be based on demonstrable increase or decrease in the cost of furnishing such sewage treatment services over and above the actual cost of furnishing such services during the third year of operation of base rate year under this Agreement after Granite City shall have installed complete secondary treatment facilities as required to meet the quality standards of Federal and State water control regulations.

These base rates, or modified base rates, shall be subject to annual increase or decrease, as hereinabove provided. Whenever, after the third full year (base rate year) of operation, Granite City's costs of furnishing such sewage treatment service to Madison County are either 5% or more higher, or 5% or more lower, than the cost of furnishing such treatment for said base year, then said base rates, or modified base rates, shall be increased or decreased by the said percentage of increase or decrease in the cost to Granite City to furnish such sewage treatment to Madison County during the base year.

These annual increases or decreases shall take effect immediately following the end of the third full month after the end of the year which require the increase or decrease provided above.

9. Any rate change arising out of Paragraph 8 above or any dispute in respect to the construction application, performance or modification of rates under this agreement,

University Cooperation Expansion Planned Here

Southern Illinois University-Southwestern is actively exploring possibilities for expanded inter-institutional cooperation with Illinois metropolitan area colleges, the SIU Board of Trustees has been advised.

SIU-SW is already involved in cooperative teaching programs with several area colleges and universities both in Illinois and Missouri, but wants to expand involvement where possible.

The university hosted a meeting May 17 involving presidents and chief academic officers of nine area colleges to discuss further cooperation. Possibilities discussed at the session included a review of residence requirements which must be met before a degree can be granted by a particular institution, expansion of acceptability of extension course credits from other colleges, and reciprocal tuition charges between institutions. The group agreed to meet again at SIU-SW at a future date.

Cooperative programs in which SIU-SW is already involved include:

An Air Force ROTC and aerospace studies program with McKendree College. University officials are discussing a similar arrangement with Principia College.

Joint use of SIU-SW and Washington University faculty in a program leading to the master of science degree in government. Courses are being taught in St. Louis on weekends to benefit government employees who cannot attend classes on a normal schedule.

Participation with the Washington University School of Medicine, the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and the city and county of St. Louis in a metropolitan area carbon monoxide poison study.

The Institute for Systematic and Evolutionary Botany, involving the Missouri Botanical Gardens, Washington University, the University of Missouri at St. Louis and St. Louis University.

The Gateway Consortium for Physical Science, involving Blackburn College, Greenville College, Illinois College, McKendree College, Millikin University, Park College, Principia College, Quincy College and Lewis and Clark Community College.

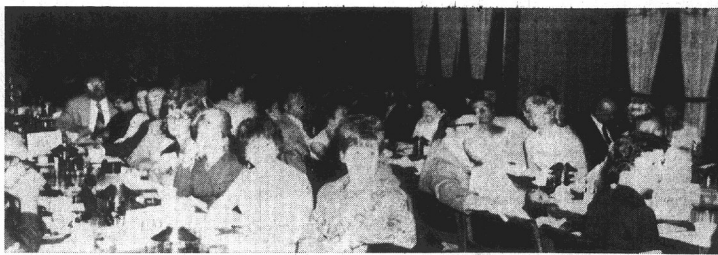

The Metropolitan Mathematics Colloquium involving Washington University, St. Louis University and the University of Missouri at St. Louis.

Development of an interrelated curriculum for dental auxiliary training involving the St. Louis County Junior College District.

Steel Imports Account for 22% of U.S. Trade Deficit

Washington — Domestic steel shipments jumped sharply in March, continuing the steady climb they began last fall.

American Iron and Steel Institute reports that, during the month, domestic steelmakers sent 2,277,000 tons of mill products to their customers, an increase of 1,278,000 tons over February's shipment mark.

It was the seventh straight monthly rise in domestic steel shipments and pushed the first quarter, 1972, total to 21,161,000 tons.

Automakers and steel service centers liked their domestic steel receipts the most during March. Shipments to the construction and container industries also were up.

Although domestic mill performance has shown marked improvement over its severe slump late last year, imports continue to be a significant factor in the overall U.S. market for steel. They accounted for nearly 14% of the nation's total steel supply during the first three months of 1972.

Grades of steel shipped in 1972, with comparisons in net tons for January-March 1971 in parentheses, follow:

Grades shipped: Carbon steel, 19,154,000 (21,920,000). Stainless steel, 194,000 (190,000). Tool steel, 22,100 (19,100).

Trousers Stolen

Honor Braundmeier for Teaching Excellence

Three faculty members at SIU-SW have received Teaching Excellence Awards, inaugurated last year at SIU-SW by the Standard Oil (Indiana) Foundation, Inc.

Winners were announced this week at a special Honors Day convocation.

The Committee on Teacher Evaluation and Reward at SIU-SW voted to recognize one faculty member on the senior level and two on the junior level.

Patrick Riddleberger of Edwardsville, professor of history, was recognized on the senior level. His award includes a $1,000 monetary gift.

John Broyer of Edwardsville, assistant professor of philosophical studies, and Auther Braundmeier, Highland, assistant professor of physics, were cited on the junior level. Each will receive $500.

Riddleberger, whose specialty is U. S. history, particularly that of the South, came here in 1960 from the University of Maryland, where he had been teaching history since 1953. A native of Virginia, he received his bachelor's degree from Virginia Military Institute and his master's degree and doctorate from the University of California.

Born in Berkeley, Calif., Broyer received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Pacific University in Oregon and his doctorate from SIU-Carbondale. A native of Granite City, Braundmeier received his bachelor's degree from Eastern Illinois University and his master's and doctorate from the University of Tennessee.

Great Teacher Award Goes to Daniel Havens

Daniel Havens, associate professor of English at SIU-SW, received the Great Teacher Award for 1972 at Honors Day ceremonies held this week.

The award is given annually by the SIU Alumni Association for effectiveness as a classroom teacher and carries with it a $1,000 grant and a plaque.

Since 1960, the SIU Alumni Association has presented a university-wide Great Teacher Award annually to a faculty member (active or emeritus) who has demonstrated excellence in classroom teaching.

Two years ago, the program was inaugurated at SIU-SW. Winners are selected by alumni and are chosen on the basis of their effectiveness as a classroom teacher rather than on research, administrative achievement or popularity. Each nomination is substantiated by a brief statement explaining why the selection was made.

Previous winners here have been Ronald Yarbrough, a member of the earth science faculty, and David Seligman of the philosophical studies department.

Born in Shanghai, of American parents, Havens earned bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees from the University of Michigan. Before joining the local faculty in 1965, he taught at the University of Cincinnati for four years.

New Eastern President Urging Private Funds

Charleston — Dr. Gilbert C. Fite, newly inaugurated president of Eastern Illinois University, says "private fund-raising has been one of the oldest and noblest traditions in American higher education and one in which Eastern must become involved in a meaningful way."

In order to maintain and improve quality at Eastern, Fite said, "it will be necessary for us to depend more heavily than we have in the past on those whom this university has served best and most directly."

"This means the alumni who received their education here and individuals in institutions in this region which have benefited both economically and culturally from the presence of this institution."

Fite told the spring commencement audience this week that "we are presently developing ideas and programs in collaboration with alumni, faculty and other constituencies of this university, which will provide the opportunity for support from those who believe deeply in the university and its program."

He was formally installed as Eastern's fourth president prior to the commencement ceremony.

In his inaugural address, Fite said there is much more that is right than wrong with colleges and universities. He said higher education "is improving steadily and is more fully meeting the needs of both individuals and society than ever before."

He said the greatest strength of higher education is the quality and dedication of faculty members who devote their lives to teaching and the pursuit of new knowledge.

In his charge to the more than 1,000 graduates, Fite said, "Lose your lives, lose them in good and great causes, so that, as the greatest of all teachers, you may find them."

Hearing in GC June 16 on Illinois Air Quality Rules

By RAY SERATI
Copley News Service

Springfield—The Illinois Pollution Control Board has proposed a detailed set of air quality standards to supplement the emission standards adopted earlier this year.

Hearings on the proposals, as previously announced in the Press-Record, have been set June 15 in Chicago and June 16 in Granite City.

The air quality standards pertain to the maximum permissible levels of sulfur dioxide, particulate matter, hydrocarbons, nitrogen oxide, carbon monoxide and photochemical oxidants in the atmosphere.

Board officials say that the levels proposed by the Illinois agency conform to those levels set by the federal government. These levels are to be attained by the various state by July 3, 1975.

If they are adopted, it will allow for utilization of the enforcement machinery of the state as well as that of the federal government in the event of violations.

Monitoring of the proposed standards would be through use of fixed or mobile sampling stations beyond the premises on which a possible source is located. The standards, if adopted, would become effective 10 days after they are filed with the Secretary of State's office.

The proposed standards would be applicable throughout the state.

In an explanation of the regulations, Board Chairman David P. Currie says, "We are expected by federal law to adopt and enforce implementation plans to achieve and maintain the new federal standards throughout the state."

A copy of the proposed regulations in the IPCB newsletter detail the accepted levels.

In its preamble, the proposed regulations state that air quality standards are limits on atmospheric concentrations of air contaminants established for the purpose of protecting public health and welfare.

Copies of the proposed regulations can be obtained by contacting the Pollution Control Board in Chicago.

140 at SIU-SW May Have Sickle Cell Tendency

It is possible that as many as 140 black students enrolled at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern and at SIU-SW's East St. Louis Center could have the sickle cell trait or disease, Mrs. Nellie Jones of the Central New Jersey Sickle Cell Foundation estimates.

She made the estimate at SIU-SW Monday, based on national statistics which show one in 10 blacks is afflicted. There are 1,400 black students enrolled at the university.

Ramon N. Williamson, vice-president for student affairs, said sickle cell screening tests will be provided for SIU-SW students at the Health Service office in the East St. Louis Center this week. Students will be tested at the main SIU-SW campus Health Service next week.

Mrs. Jones, a victim of sickle cell and a former registered nurse, is holding workshops throughout the U. S. at community organizations and colleges and universities. She held two sessions at SIU-SW for administrators, faculty and students.

She said the sickle cell disease is found predominantly within the black population, "but cases have been diagnosed among Caucasians, Indians and Puerto Ricans." The disease is found to be most prevalent in eastern regions of Africa and along the Mediterranean coast.

Testing of the blood is very important, but professional counseling should be provided for anyone found with the trait or disease, Mrs. Jones said. The depression and worry that a victim may face is as bad as the disease, she said.

YOUNG LIFE PLAYERS rehearsing for one of the comedy skits that will be a part of "Reflections" May 26 at 7:30 P.M. at First Assembly of God Church, 24th and Grand Avenue.

'Reflections' Banquet Will Honor GCHS Seniors Friday

Young Life has announced that it will produce "Reflections" again this year. Reflections is a semi-formal banquet to honor the seniors of GCHS and to "reflect" the past school year.

The event tomorrow evening will include a full meal, featuring fried chicken. About 15 trophies will be awarded to deserving seniors.

Dave Williams, well known for his hilarious skits of the past, has prepared three new sketches to provide entertainment. One will provide a "Rip VanWinkle" view of the future of some of the seniors.

A movie backed by special music will provide the grand finale for the evening.

able pain in the joints, have frequent nose bleeds, carry a fever and often have ulcers on their body, she said. Mrs. Jones said people with the trait are advised not to marry.

Normally, sickle cell victims do not live beyond the age of 40. However, Mrs. Jones said, she is 39 years old and hopes to overcome that statistic.

Mrs. Jones said there are no certain cures for sickle cell, and little is known about the disease.

Drugs, transfusions and rest are helpful in arresting the course of the pain and symptoms, she added.

door tickets will be $2.50 per person.

Conductor Arthur Fiedler Dons a Bullfighter's Suit

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

When you think of a great conductor, chances are that you envisage a man with a bulldog jaw and inch-thick eyebrows that meet in the middle. A very serious man.

Yet, there are exceptions — and one is Arthur Fiedler, the musically irascible conductor of the Boston Pops.

Fiedler has made "good" music popular. Or is it popular music good?

After the somber Boston Symphony folds its tent each year, Fiedler and the Pops emerge to play that special brand of symphonic sound that is peculiarly American.

This year Fiedler is wearing a bullfighter's "suit of lights" as he takes the Pops on a Latin tour: "Fiedler Ole!" (RCA LSC-3279).

Highlights of the LP are Manuel De Falla's "The Three Corners Hat" (Dances), Ernesto Lecuona's "Malagueña" and Emanuel Chabrier's "Es-pana Rhapsody."

Although willing to pose in a bullfighter's costume, Fiedler is Mr. Precision when it comes to musical performance.

He leads the Pops through a slick rendition of Falla's "Hat" dances.

Fiedler also includes the more familiar "Ritual Fire Dance" of the great Spanish composer.

The arrangements of this and other Latin favorites on the LP are typically lush in the strings and solid in the brass.

For those planning a Latin vacation this year, Fiedler offers great music-to-read-your-travel literature-by.

Fiedler also is coming out this year with another of his series of music in the reflective mood.

The latest LP is called

"Reverie" (RCA LSC-3248) and includes such sentimental standards as "Misty," "Reverie" (Debussy), "Intermezzo," "Moon River" and "Tenderly."

The arrangements by Richard Hayman and Jack Mason are excellent. Good music.

And, in a rousing collection of homespun music, Fiedler leads the Boston Pops, accompanied by guest artist Chet Atkins, in "American Salute" (RCA LSC-3277).

The stirring set of musical tributes ranges from early Americana like "Shenandoah" and "Down in the Valley" to modern favorites like "By the Time I Get to Phoenix" and "Pops Roundup" — themes from TV westerns.

During the tempestuous 15 years or so that Artie Shaw led his own big bands, they were never less than good and often great.

At the peak of his popularity, Shaw was Benny Goodman's only serious rival to the King of Swing title and, like Benny, he broke down racial barriers.

In 1940 he engaged that great black trumpeter-singer Hot Lips Page.

After World War II, Shaw put together a new band, this time featuring a fellow named Roy Eldridge.

It is Shaw and Eldridge who are featured in the new RCA Vintage series album entitled, naturally enough, "Artie Shaw Featuring Roy Eldridge."

This platter, like the rest of the RCA Vintage series, offers the listener an incredible collection of clear original recordings, some cut as early as the mid-1920s. Some of the melodies featured on the Shaw album include "Lady Day," a salute to Billie Holiday; "A Foggy Day" with Roy Eldridge and many more.

Not long after these records were made, the Swing Era came to a close. But the classic melodies made popular by Shaw and Goodman and Eldridge and an army of other talents are as listenable today as they ever were.

"Tapestry" on Ampex Tapes, was Don McLean's first contribution to the music world and it is both a socially and musically significant tape.

It also got a shot in the arm recently as people began to get familiar with Don through his hit single "American Pie."

The ballads on "Tapestry," all written by Don, are stories of social imbalance, ecological disaster and tender, touching love.

"Tapestry" is about the side of America we don't like to think about and the side of love we often fail to speak about.

It is a thoughtful tape worthy of the popularity now enjoyed by McLean.

"Classics on the tape are 'Candles in the Air,' 'General Store,' 'Tapestry,' 'Respectable,' 'Orphans of Wealth,' 'Three Fights Up' and 'And I Love You So.'"
